PURPOSE of the SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The purpose of the scholarship fund is to provide financial assistance to students enrolled in a degree program within the School of Business and Public Administration (SBPA) at the University of the District of Columbia. These funds may be used for tuition assistance, fees, transportation, books, and incidentals that recipients may need while enrolled in school.

The scholarship funds are available to business majors to be used for miscellaneous items such as transportation, books, personal, and education needs a student may need as they pursue their studies.

REQUIREMENTS and ELIGIBILITY

- Recipients may be a full-time or part-time student enrolled in a degree program within the SBPA at UDC;
- Recipients must have acquired a 2.5 or better cumulative grade point average;
- Recipients must be a United States citizen and a resident of the District of Columbia.
- Employees of the University are eligible to apply for the scholarship funds;
- Recipients are eligible to receive financial assistance once per semester based upon availability of funds.

APPLICATION

Students who are applying for the scholarship must adhere to the following guidelines:

- Write a letter of request for the funds.
- Write a letter of appreciation to the donor
