

BOARD OF TRUSTEES
UNIVERSITY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UDC Resolution No.

SUBJECT: Professor Emeritus Appointments for Academic Year 2013-2014 for:
Dr. Beverly Jacques Anderson, College of Arts & Sciences
Dr. Victor Katz, College of Arts & Sciences
Dr. Antonia Nowell, School of Business & Public Administration
Dr. Marie Racine, College of Arts & Sciences
Dr. Eugene Shiro, Community College

WHEREAS, pursuant to 8 DCMR § 1412.1, the title of Professor Emeritus may be conferred by the Board of Trustees upon a retired member of the faculty who has rendered distinguished service to the University; and

WHEREAS, the Provost and the Deans of the College of Arts and Sciences and the Community College of the UDC, along with faculty committees in each school or college who review and make such assessments, have recommended that Emeritus status be conferred upon the named retired faculty members: Professors Beverly Jacques Anderson, Victor Katz, Antonia Nowell, Marie Racine, and Eugene Shiro, in recognition of each Professor's range of contributions to the academic pursuits of the University and to the community of the District; and

WHEREAS, the named former professors' careers at UDC were marked by academic and scholarly achievement, including excellent teaching skills; the publication of books and journal articles; the pursuit of extramural funding for programs that greatly benefitted UDC students; and service to the University community on a wide range of department-, college-, and university-level committees; and

WHEREAS, in addition to serving as a faculty member, these professors also have served in many other capacities in support of the University's mission and have brought positive attention and credit to the University, and whose continued association would prove beneficial to UDC;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that in recognition of their long and committed service to the University, the City, and the profession in the areas of teaching, research, and service, the Board of Trustees hereby confers upon Professors Beverly Jacques Anderson, Victor Katz, Antonia Nowell, Marie Racine, and Eugene Shiro the title and position of Professor Emeritus, with all the rights, privileges, and responsibilities pertaining thereto.

The proposed resolution is for the title of Professor Emeritus which may be conferred by the Board of Trustees upon a retired member of the faculty who has rendered distinguished service to the University. The Provost and Deans of the College of Arts and Sciences and the Community College of the University of the District of Columbia, along with faculty committees in each school or college who review and make such assessments, have recommended that Emeritus status be conferred upon the named retired faculty members: Professors Beverly Jacques Anderson, Victor Katz, Dr. Marie Racine, Eugene Shiro, and Dr. Antonia Nowell in recognition of each Professor's range of contributions to the academic pursuits of the University and to the community of the District.

Their recognition is justified due to their long and committed service to the University, the City, and their profession in the areas of teaching, research, and service, the Board of Trustees hereby confers upon Professors Beverly Jacques Anderson, Victor Katz, Marie Racine, Eugene Shiro, and Antonia Nowell the title and position of Professor Emeritus, with all the rights, privileges, and responsibilities pertaining thereto.

There is no monetary cost associated with these service recognitions. Therefore the University's Board of Trustees approval is requested on this action.
