

Be part of the University of the District of Columbia's history — and its future!

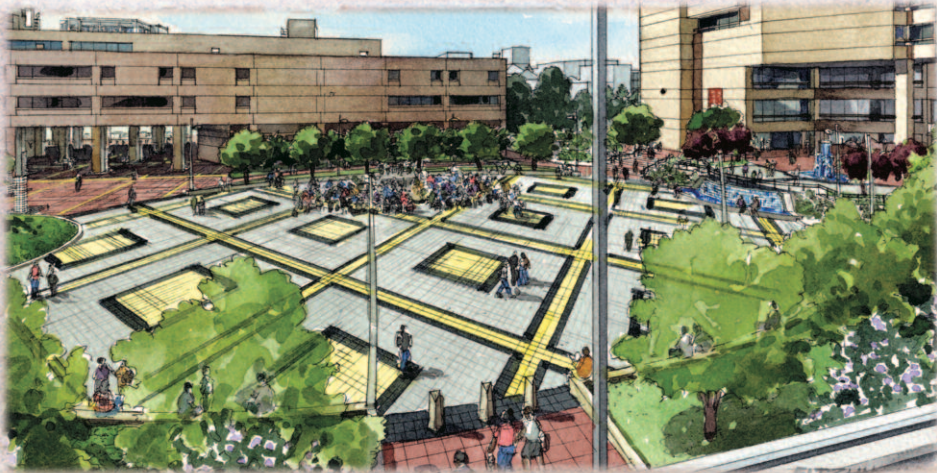

As we celebrate our 160th anniversary, a great way to re-dedicate ourselves to our founder's mission is with a personalized brick or paver on Cleveland Dennard Plaza and Founders' Commons. Construction has already begun, and with an expected dedication in Spring 2012, this is the perfect time to join the celebration and ensure that your generosity bears fruit for generations of scholars and achievers to come.

Become a Milestone Anniversary Supporter and have your name etched on Dennard Plaza.

The center of the plaza, Founders' Commons, is reserved for alumni of our legacy institutions.
