WDP at a glance

The mission of the Workforce Development Program (WDP) is to reduce unemployment and under-employment in the District of Columbia by enhancing the skills of its residents. The program provides training to DC residents aimed at helping them get jobs, be promoted in jobs, and train for jobs in new industries. The offerings are varied and appeal to a wide variety of interests.

Where is training offered?

WDP classes are held at three (3) locations:

WARD	LOCATION
5	Backus Campus 5171 South Dakota Avenue, NE Washington, DC 20017
7	Shadd Campus (Formerly Fletcher-Johnson) 5601 East Capitol Street, SE Washington, DC 20019

- Bring with you documentation for each requirement shown in the “What must I bring with me to the assessment center?” section of this brochure.
- Upon completion of the assessment activities, you will receive an appointment to meet with your Student Success Specialist to determine your individualized education program (IEP). During this meeting, all of the options available to you will be clearly explained, and you will make your final selection of training activities.
- Your registration will be complete when you receive a Notice of Registration, which will be sent to the email address you provide. We are not responsible for incorrect email addresses. Bring this Notice of Registration with you on the first day of class.

Your Wait List Hold Notice will expire if you do not respond within the stated period, and the slot may be offered to another applicant.
