University of the District Of Columbia Presents Annual Holiday Concert

Washington, D.C. – The University of the District of Columbia will present its Annual Holiday Concert at 7:30 PM, Monday, December 11, 2006 in the University Auditorium, located on the University's campus at 4200 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C.

The concert is the University's annual holiday gift to the Washington, D.C. community and is free and open to the public. The UDC Chorale directed by William Jones, starts the evening with a program of choral music followed by the gospel sounds of The Voices, directed by Gerry Gillespie. The UDC Jazz Ensemble directed by Allyn Johnson closes the program with big band jazz sure to spread the holiday spirit.

The University Auditorium (Bldg. 46 East – Van Ness Campus) is conveniently located on Metrorail's Red Line at the Van Ness/UDC station. Complimentary parking will be available on the night of the concert. Contact Judith A. Korey at (202) 274-5803 or jkorey@udc.edu for additional information.

The University of the District of Columbia is the fully-accredited sole public source for accessible, inclusive, affordable, and comprehensive public higher education in the District of Columbia and provides additional life-long learning opportunities. The University delivers quality instruction and uses student-centered approaches to empower and benefit both individuals and its local communities. The University, an urban land grant institution, is a very diverse community, a gateway to the world, and a significant investment engine for the District of Columbia. The University is located at 4200 Connecticut Ave, NW Washington, and is conveniently located at the Van Ness/UDC stop on the Red Line of Metro. For more information on other University activities, contact Mike Andrews, Senior Director for Communications and University Spokesperson at (202) 274-5685 or visit the University's web site at www.udc.edu.
