Graduate Students

Living and personal expenses may vary. The University of the District of Columbia does not require that tuition and fees be paid prior to registration; however you may make arrangements to pre-pay your fees via the Office of Student Accounts.

All rates are based on a nine-month academic calendar and are subject to change.

Undergraduate Students: Table 1 estimates are based on a course load of 12 credit hours per semester for one academic year.

Graduate Students: Tables 2 and 3 are based on a course load of 9 credit hours per semester for one academic year.

Health Insurance: All students must maintain a health insurance policy approved by the University of the District of Columbia.

Dependents: Students accompanied by a dependent must account for an additional $3,800 of support for the first dependent, and approximately $2,500 for each additional dependent. Estimates do not include summer tuition.

Financial Affidavit Instructions
Please provide on the opposite page the names, addresses and relationship of each/all individuals funding your education. Academic decisions regarding University admission are determined without regard to financial support, however you will not be eligible to obtain a proper visa without adequate finances. The University of the District of Columbia will issue an I-20 only after this form is complete and the necessary supporting documentation has been submitted. Remember to keep additional copies of all financial documentation, as the U.S. consulate will also require proof of financial solvency.

It is the applicant’s responsibility to demonstrate sufficient funding to meet all tuition and living expenses. For immigration and sponsorship purposes, the estimated length of study is four years for a Bachelors degree and two years for the Associate and Master degrees.

Sponsored Students
In addition to showing your intent, your sponsor must provide original and certified proof in the form of a bank statement, which will indicate the available funds to support your first year of study. If your sponsor will be providing support in the form of housing, this must also be indicated on the affidavit. Room and board supplied in return for any type of service (s) constitutes illegal employment under DHS rules and will not be used for purposes of visa document issuance.

Government Sponsor Students
Submit an original letter of support, stating the exact terms and length of the scholarship. This letter must include any restrictions, such as program or duration of study provisions. The financial affidavit is not required.

Assistantships
The original offer letter from the awarding graduate department must be submitted to Admissions. It is the recipient’s responsibility to ensure that proper notification is received.
