Job Opportunities
University of the District of Columbia (UDC)

Position: Assistant Professor (2 Positions)

Salary Range: Rank and Salary Commensurate with Qualifications

Location: Van Ness Campus

Areas of Consideration: Nation-wide

Responsible to: Chairperson, Department of Biological and Environmental Sciences College of Arts and Sciences

Date: 05-04-05

Number: 04-38

Closing Date: Open Until Filled

Brief Description of Duties

Teaches undergraduate courses in biology, counsels and advises student; secures funded grants; engages in research, scholarly activities and service to the University.

Works with senior researchers, undergraduate and graduate students and research laboratory technician in performing biochemical and molecular biology techniques.

Maintains a detailed record of research data. Examines previously published-related information found in scientific journals, procedure books, computer literatures searches, etc. from libraries and personal contact with senior researchers, graduate students and technicians.

Performs molecular biology techniques such as, construction of cDNA libraries, antibody screening, Southern, Northern and Western Blot analyses, DNA sequencing, PCR procedure, protein, DNA and RNA extraction, electrophoresis, RFLP and RAPD analyses, and biochemical techniques such as HPLC.

Qualification Required

Ph.D in molecular biology, biochemistry, immunology, microbiology or related areas with post-doctoral training in virology, microbiology, immunology or biochemistry. Specialized experiences that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position and that is typically in or related to the position as described above. Must have excellent knowledge of molecular biology and biochemical techniques and the appropriate safety procedures in the handling of radioisotopes and other biohazards.

UDC is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of disability (P.L.93-122)
All candidates will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, martial status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, source of income, place of residence or business.

The Residency Preference Amendment Act of 1988, D.C. Law 7-203, created a system which provides that any applicant for employment in the Career or Educational Services who is a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia may claim a residency preference at the time of application. An applicant selected for appointment based on District residency will be required to submit proof of bona fide District residency. Bona fide District residency must be maintained from the date of appointment to the position for five consecutive years.

This position is in the collective bargaining unit.

Please submit a curriculum vitae, official transcript, three letters of recommendations to:

Ms. Isabelle McMillian
University to the District of Columbia
Office of Human Resources
Building 38, Suite 301-12
4200 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008