Job Opportunities

University of the District of Columbia (UDC)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Position:</th>
<th>Assistant Professor (Political Science)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Salary Range:</td>
<td>Rank and Salary Commensurate with Qualifications</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Location:</td>
<td>Van Ness Campus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Areas of Consideration:</td>
<td>Nation-wide</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Responsible to:</td>
<td>Chairperson, Urban Affairs, Social Sciences and Social Work, College of Arts and Sciences</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Announcement

Date: 11-21-05

Number: 05-48

Closing Date: Open Until Filled

Brief Description of Duties

Teaches undergraduate courses in International Relations, Political Development, American Foreign Policy, and Political Theory; advises and mentors and demonstrates a strong commitment toward preparing students for graduate study; conducts research, seeks grants and other funding to enhance the growth and development of the program; directs and engages students in research and professional development activities; assists in the development of a technology-based curricula; and participates in program, department, college and University service activities.

Qualifications Required

PH.D in political science and experience teaching in a university environment. A commitment to undergraduate education with demonstrated excellence in scholarly research, presentations and professional training is also required. Candidate must demonstrate an ability to incorporate technology-based resources in academic courses. Strong interpersonal and organizational skills combined with excellent oral and written communication skills preferred. Candidate must also be able to engage in interdisciplinary teaching work well with non-traditional, diverse student populations.

All candidates will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, source of income, place of residence or business.

(see reverse side)

---

University of the District of Columbia is an equal opportunity employer.
The Residency Preference Amendment Act of 1988, D.C. Law 7-203, created a system which provides that any applicant for employment in the Career or Educational Services who is a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia may claim a residency preference at the time of application. An applicant selected for appointment based on District residency will be required to submit proof of bona fide District residency. Bona fide District residency must be maintained from the date of appointment to the position for five consecutive years.

This position is in the collective bargaining unit.

Please submit a curriculum vitae, official transcript, three letters of recommendation to:

Ms. Isabelle McMillian
University to the District of Columbia
Office of Human Resources
Building 38, Suite 301-12
4200 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008