University of the District Of Columbia Presents Annual Holiday Concert

Washington, D.C. — The University of the District of Columbia will present its Annual Holiday Concert at 7:30 PM, Monday, December 5, 2005 in the University Auditorium, located on the University’s campus at 4200 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C.

The concert is the University's annual holiday gift to the Washington, D.C. community and is free and open to the public. The UDC Chorale directed by William Jones, starts the evening with a program of choral music followed by the gospel sounds of The Voices, directed by Gerry Gillespie. The UDC Jazz Ensemble directed by Allyn Johnson carries on the legacy of Calvin Jones and closes the program with big band jazz sure to spread the holiday spirit.

The University Auditorium (Bldg. 46 East – Van Ness Campus) is conveniently located on Metro’s Red
Line at the Van Ness/UDC station. Complimentary parking will be available on the night of the concert. Contact Judith A. Korey at (202) 274-5803 or jkorey@udc.edu for additional information.
