The UDCCC Faculty Senate of the University of The District of Columbia Community College is part of the shared governance structure which is an essential right and responsibility of a scholarly community. It is a governing body with sufficient autonomy to assure academic integrity and to fulfill its responsibilities of policy and resource development consistent with the mission of the institution. Through duly constituted legislative processes, it provides for the exercise of the faculty’s fundamental role in academic decisions, the implementation and preservation of academic standards, and promotion of the welfare of students. The interdependence and cooperation of the administration, faculty and governing board are essential to legitimate and effective shared governance.

ARTICLE I   NAME

This academic governance of the University of the District of Columbia Community College, also known as UDCCC, is called the UDCCC Faculty Senate.

ARTICLE II   PURPOSE

The UDCCC Faculty Senate is organized to provide a venue for discussion and deliberation and to propose rational (supported by documented research and academic scholarly practice) decisions regarding academic issues critical to achieving the mission and core values of the College.

ARTICLE III FUNCTIONS OF THE UDCCC FACULTY SENATE

SECTION 1 Responsibilities of the UDCCC Faculty Senate

The UDCCC Faculty Senate shall have responsibility, subject to guidelines and policies established by the Board of Trustees of the University the District of Columbia (BOT/UDC) to formulate and recommend (encompasses review, comment, suggest, amend, approve, and reject) policies pertaining to the operation of the College including the following:

A. Establish the academic standards of the College.

B. Set qualifications for degrees, requirements for matriculation, and scholarship standards.

C. Review the operations of the Community College curriculum; approve new curricula and courses.
D. Review and approve modification of existing curricula, and recommend suspension or termination of programs.
