Terms of Office of the Voting Representatives:

The terms of office shall be:

- Elected representatives shall each serve a term of two years.
- A full-time member of the departmental University faculty who does not hold an administrative appointment or serve as department chair shall be eligible to serve as an elected faculty representative.
- Vacancies shall be filled by special election and shall be for the remainder of the term of the replaced representative.
- A faculty representative who transfers from a department shall be ineligible to continue to serve as a representative of the department from which the faculty representative transferred.

Elections:

Elections to the FS and for leadership positions in the FS will be held thusly:

- Department / College elections of Senators shall be held in the month of April. Duly elected Senators shall take their seats at the first regular FS meeting in May.
- All full-time faculty members who hold faculty rank in a department are eligible to vote in an election for faculty representatives in that department.
- Elections to the FS shall be staggered, with half of the seats up for election in even years, and half in odd years.
• The initial FS election shall take place in spring 2011, effective for the first regular FS meeting of the next Academic Year, following approval of the FS Charter by the Board of Trustees.
  o In this initial election, half of the elected members will be elected for one year terms and the other half for two years terms. The length of each member’s term shall be determined randomly by lots. The name of each member shall be placed on one lot, and such lots will be drawn randomly by the President of the Interim Academic Senate. The first lot drawn shall serve a term of one year, the second lot drawn shall serve a term of two years, the third lot drawn shall serve a term of one year, and so on until a term has been determined for each member.
  o In subsequent elections all representatives will serve two years terms as stated in the FS Charter.
  o The election schedule established by the above random process will remain in effect in perpetuity unless altered by a majority vote of those present and eligible to vote, excluding abstentions, during a duly called and noticed meeting of the FS, a quorum being present.

• The duly elected Senators shall take their seats before May 15 of the academic year.
• The newly-elected FS shall hold leadership elections at its first regular meeting in May.
