The Men of Omicron Gamma Chapter Present: The Nannie Helen Burroughs Project

Learn more about the founder of the Nannie Helen Burroughs Project, an African-American history project based in Annapolis, Maryland. James E. Wyatt founded this organization to promote the views of black activist Nannie Helen Burroughs.

Discover more about a hero in African-American history with the Nannie Helen Burroughs Project, based in Annapolis, Maryland. As a black activist, Burroughs was at the forefront of a racial revolution in our country. Come learn more about Nannie Helen Burroughs as we continue to celebrate Black History Month.

When: February 20th 2015 @ 5pm
Where: Building 41 A-03

APPROVED