Winter Commencement 2011

Winter Commencement 2011 is right around the corner!!! As you prepare for the excitement of receiving your degree, you need to make sure you have done the following:

- secured your application for graduation (including graduation fee of $125.00);
- completed all coursework (make sure your grades have been posted to your transcript);
- complete graduate checklist

You will be able to get measured and secure your cap and gown from the UDC Bookstore beginning January 18, 2012. Please be advised that the bookstore will also be in the process of completing bookstore vouchers—long lines may occur until January 24th, 2012. Caps and gowns will be available for purchase until the day of Commencement.

Winter Commencement, January 27, 2012-10:00 A.M.
University Theater of the Arts

Invitations will be available for pick up starting today after the class meeting. Graduates will be able to receive three (3) invitations and admit cards. Admit cards are required for entry to Commencement.

Do you want to order a class ring? A representative from Jostens will be on campus January 26, 2012, Building 38, A-Level, 3:00-6:00PM. You can check out their website, www.jostens.com for additional info.
