

BOARD OF TRUSTEES
UNIVERSITY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
UDC RESOLUTION NO. 2009-04

SUBJECT: Structure of Community College Component of University System of the District of Columbia

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees, pursuant to the provisions of D.C. Code §38-1202.06(16), has overall authority to govern the University of the District of Columbia, and, may, pursuant to D.C. Code §38-1202.06(3), establish or approve policies and procedures governing admissions, curricula, programs, graduation, the awarding of degrees, and general policy making for the components of the University;

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees, in UDC Resolution No. 2009-01, directs the President to establish within the University System of the District of Columbia a low-cost, open-admission Community College, focusing on workforce development, technical and academic certifications and academic associate degrees;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that in carrying out UDC Resolution 2009-01, the President shall be guided by the following provisions:

1. The President of the University System shall appoint a Community College Campus Chief Executive Officer who shall manage the day-to-day operations of the Community College and shall serve at the pleasure of the President.
2. The President shall establish a separate name and marketing/public relations identity for the Community College which shall reflect its nature as a low-cost Community College option.
3. The President shall locate suitable facilities for the Community College.
4. The President shall determine the appropriate program offerings to effectuate the mission of the Community College.
5. The Board directs the President to establish a Community College with the following components/programs: technical and vocational training; workforce development; certificate programs; associate degree programs which fully articulate to four-year programs at the flagship institution; and developmental education programs.
